

FOR LEARNERS

Which fees were covered?

If you were undertaking an eligible programme and were enrolled at a Te Pūkenga Division, Wānanga, Private Training Establishment or University

When did your course* start?

Before January 2020

Fees were only covered in exceptional circumstances and where a substantial proportion of your study occurred after 1 July 2020. Your tertiary provider applied to the Tertiary Education Commission to consider payment of fees.

Between January and April 2020

Full course fees were covered if at least 75% of your course occurred after 1 July 2020.
Half of course fees were covered if between 50% and 75% of your course occurred after 1 July 2020.
Fees were not covered if less than 50% of your course occurred after 1 July 2020.

Between May and June 2020

Full course fees were covered if at least one third of your course occurred after 1 July 2020. Fees were not covered if less than one third of your course occurred after 1 July 2020.

After 1 July 2020

Full course fees were covered.

*For funding purposes, programmes of study (e.g. qualifications) are made up of courses. The start date of your individual course (not the start date of your qualification) determined whether fees were covered.

OR

If you undertook an eligible programme arranged by a Te Pūkenga Division

Proportion of your study and training that occurred from 1 July 2020 was covered.
If your fees for study and training that occurred after 1 July 2020 were paid prior to 1 July 2019, these fees might not have been refunded. Contact your training organisation for more information.

During 2021 and 2022 Industry Training Organisations transitioned their arranging of training to Te Pūkenga or PTEs. These start date rules applied to eligible programmes previously arranged by Industry Training Organisations.
