About this directory

Purpose

This directory is for migrants who have pre-purchased English tuition as part of their immigration to Aotearoa/New Zealand. It contains a list of providers approved by the Tertiary Education Commission (TEC) to deliver Pre-purchased English Language Tuition (PELT).

The directory contains providers' contact details and a summary of their courses. It is organised geographically.

Further information

If you have any questions about the information in this directory or about Pre-purchased English Language Tuition, please contact the TEC. Language Line is available for speakers of other languages.

Phone: 0800 601 301

Email: customer.service@tec.govt.nz

Postal: PO Box 27048, Wellington 6141

Selecting a school

- » Look through the directory for schools that are close to you and provide the sort of courses you want to do.
- » Choose a provider and course that meets your needs.
- » Contact the provider to find out more about their courses. Look at their website, or call or visit them.

Enrolling in a course

- » When you are ready to start your course, call the TEC to confirm that your funds are ready to be accessed. This can take up to eight weeks from when you paid.
- » Take your Agreement/Schedule, passport and payment receipt to the school to show you have pre-paid for your tuition. If you don't have all these items, just take your passport.
- » When you enrol in a course, the school will ask you to sign a TEC enrolment form to give your consent for the TEC to pay your course fees.
- » Please check the course name and the fees before you sign the form.
- » All prices in the directory are in New Zealand dollars and include GST.

Withdrawal and refunds

- » If you want to withdraw from the course within the first 10 working days, inform the TEC.
- » After 10 working days the school's own refund policy will apply. Please ask the school for more information.
- » Fee refunds will be sent to the TEC and returned to your Pre-purchased English Language Tuition account.

Cambridge Exams Preparation

These full-time courses prepare students to sit one of the Cambridge Assessment English exams: C2 Proficiency, C1 Advanced or B2 First. These are General English tests, so the preparation courses are great for learners who want to study General English but with the extra focus of preparing for an exam. The tests are not intended to measure English ability for entry to English-speaking universities and other institutions, but a pass in one of the Cambridge exams is often accepted as evidence of English-language ability for this purpose.

General English

RELA has provided high-quality English language programmes to local and international students since 1993. We have classes at multiple levels which help you to gain the knowledge, skills, and confidence to use the language in the real world. Our General English classes will help you improve your fluency and accuracy in all aspects of English- reading, writing, grammar, listening and speaking. Students are tested before their first day and placed in a class with other students of a similar level. Our classes are small with an average of 6 – 8 students per class, so there are a lot of opportunities to ask your teacher questions. We look forward to meeting you and helping you on your English journey.

- » Full-time classes run from 8.30am–3.00pm Monday to Thursday and also 8.30am–12.00pm on a Friday.
- » Part-time morning classes are 8.30am–12.00pm Monday to Friday.
